Madrid, March 14.

COunt Mansfelds, the Emperor's Ambaſſador, having informed the King that ſeveral Princes and States of the Empire, had reſolved to meet by their Deputies at Ausburgh, to treat upon what had been propoſed by the States of Franconia, for their mutual Defence and Security, his Catholick Majeſty has named the Sieur de Neufgorges, his Deputy at the Dyet at Ratisbonne, to aſſiſt on his part at the ſaid Conference. Orders have been ſent to Cadiz, to haſten the Equipage of the Men of War which are to go and meet the Galeons, and a Sum of Money has been ſent thither for that Service. Don Joſeph de Faria, late Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Portugal at the Court of England, is come to reſide here in the ſame Quality, in the place of Don Mendo de Pereyra, who has had his Audiences of Leave. The Decrees for the great Reform which the King has reſolved to make in the ſeveral Councils, &c. are not yet publiſhed.

Warſaw, March 8. The Letters from the Frontiers inform us, that ſome Poliſh Troops defeated about ten days ago, a Convoy of 200 Wagons laden with Ammunition, which the Turks were carrying to Caminiec, and killed and took many of the Turks priſoners; but that the Baſſa of Caminiec having notice of it, ſent out a party of that Gariſon, who coming up with the Poles, charged them, and exceeding them very much in number, obliged them to abandon their Booty, and to retire in great diſorder; and that upon this news Orders were ſent to the Sieur Laska, who commanded a party of Poles on that ſide to joyn with Mohila General of the Coſſacks, and to purſue the Enemy. Theſe Letters add, that five perſons who were Spies for the Turks, having been lately taken, confeſſed that they had been in all the Frontier places of this Kingdom, and even at Leopol, to obſerve what Preparations were making for the Campagne, as well as the ſcituation and ſtrength of the ſaid places. The King is ſtill at Zolkiew; The Expreſs he ſent to Rome is come back, with freſh aſſurances that the Pope will further aſſiſt his Majeſty with very conſiderable Supplies, to enable him to ſupport the Expences of the Campagne. The Letters from Moſcow ſay, the Ambaſſadors of this Crown were very well received there, and that the Czars had appointed ſome of their chief Miniſters to treat with them.

Vienna, March 19. The 14th inſtant arrived here an Expreſs from Upper Hungary, with the News that General Caprara was before Montgatz; And that the King of Poland had ſent to give him notice that the Tartars were marching in a great Body towards Hungary. The 17th we had an account by a ſecond Expreſs, that Count Caraffa had joined General Caprara with 800 Horſe, 2000 Foot, and eight pieces of Cannon, and ſix Mortars, and that they had begun to batter the Caſtle of Montgatz. The advice of the march of the Tartars is confirmed from ſeveral hands; We are told they are commanded by Sultan Galga, and that they take their march through Moldavia and Walachia, with a deſign, as it's thought, to join with the Turks for the relief of Montgatz. The Count de Herberſtein, Lieutenant-Colonel of the Regiment of Straſoldo, who was taken by the Rebels ſome years ago, and has been ever ſince a Priſoner at Montgatz, is exchanged for two Hungarian Officers of that Gariſon, who were lately taken in a Sally they made. The Baſſa of Great Waradin has cauſed 16 Officers of the Gariſon of St. Job to be ſtrangled, for making no better defence than they did. Count Caraffa has put into that place a Gariſon of 800 Men, and has ſet ſeveral hundred Men on work to repair the Fortifications. We have advice that Count Teckeley having got together about 800 Hungarians, is gone with them from Great Waradin to the Turkiſh Camp between Gyula and Lippa, where they have about 8000 Men, but that he is ſo cloſely obſerved, that he may not write or ſpeak but in the preſence of two Officers, who are appointed to accompany him wherever he goes. The Duke of Lorrain is expected here in ten days or a fortnight; and in the mean time the Preparations for the Campagne are carried on with all the diligence and application imaginable. The Regiments appointed to ſerve in Hungary, are 26 of Foot, viz. thoſe of Count Erneſt de Staremberg, Leſley, Keyſerſtin, Bade, Manſfeldt, Maximilian de Staremberg, Scherny, Croy, Salm, la Vergne, Stadel, Scherſemberg, Souches, Meternich, Diepenthal, Thun, Neubourg, Wallis, Becke, Aſpremont, Nigrelli, Heuſler, Lorrain, Houtchin, Furſtemberg and Spinola, making together 38600 Men; 19 Regiments of Horſe, viz. of Saxe Lawembourg, Caprara, Dunewaldt, Palfi, Caraffa, Gondola, Taff, Mercy, Montecuculi, Veterani, Picolomini, Heuſler, Neubourg, Gotz, Hanouer, Furſtemberg, Plaiz, Truchs, and another, making 15200 Men; 8 Regiments of Dragoons, of Schultz, Dupin, Caſſel, Serau, Herbeville, Savoy, Daſoni, and Magni, making 6400; and 2 Regiments of Croats of Keri and Lodron, making 2000; The Auxiliary Troops of Saxony will be 4000; thoſe of Bavaria 8000; thoſe of Brandenburg 7000; thoſe of Franconia and Suabia 8000; and thoſe of the Circle of the Upper Rhine 3600: All theſe Forces together amount to 92800 Men. It is ſaid that the Elector of Brandenburg has promiſed the Emperor 1200 Men, beſides thoſe for which his Imperial Majeſty has treated with him. There are private Letters from Buda of the 3 Inſtant, which confirm what our former advices ſaid of the Grand Viziers Reſolution to bring the Ottoman Forces that ſerved the laſt last year against the Poles into Hungary, and to employ the Troops of Asia, with the Moldavians, Valachians, and a Body of Tartars on that side It is likewise confirmed that the Turks of Pest having fallen upon a party of our Forag'rs, took and killed about 120 of them. The Count d'Erdedi Viceroy of Croatia is upon his departure, having setled the matters he came hither about to his satisfaction. The Letters from Zolnocke say, that the Generals de Mercy and Heusler are drawing together the Imperial Troops under their Command, to observe the Turks, who they believe have a design to fall upon them in their Quarters. Count Taff is arrived here from Upper Hungary to hasten the Convoy of Money and Provisions that is to be sent thither for the payment and subsistence of the Forces commanded by General Caprara.

Ratisbonne, March 22. The Imperial Decree, by which the Emperor demands the assistance of the States of the Empire against the Turks, has been considered of in the several Colledges; That of the Electors have consented to it, but the Colledges of the Princes, and the Imperial Cities have not yet been able to come to any determination therein; The said Cities, and some of the lesser Princes being unwilling to give their consent to the Subsidies the Emperor demands, but upon condition that they may be exempted from furnishing Winter Quarters for the Imperial Forces, and from giving any thing in lieu thereof. The Count de Hohenloe parted from hence the last week for Nuremberg, to assist at the meeting of the States of Franconia, who are now assembled there, to draw up Instructions for the Deputies they have resolved to send to Augsburg to confer with the Ministers of the Emperor, the Elector of Bavaria, and the Circles of Bavaria, Suabia, and the Upper Rhine, who are to meet there the beginning of the next Month. The King of Spain and the King of Sweden we are told, will likewise send Deputies to this Meeting.

Paris, March 30. The 28th Instant the King's Statue, set up by the Mareschal de la Feuillade, was uncovered, the Dauphin being present, with the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans, the Duke of Chartres, Madamoiselle, Madamoiselle d'Orleans, and Madame de Guise, and the Magistrates of this City being there in a Body; after this Ceremony the Dauphin went to the Opera and to the Town-House, where there was a magnificent Collation; a very fine Fire-work was prepared on the Greue, Fountains run with Wine in several places of this City, the Cannon were discharged, and in the Evening Bonfires were made in all the streets. Yesterday arrived here an Express from Germany with the news of the death of the Princess Charlotte of Hesse, Dowager to Charles Louis Elector Palatine, who died the last week at Hydelberg, after a long sickness; She was Daughter of William Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, was born in the year 1627, and Married to the said Prince Elector in 1650. This day two Companies of the Musquetiers exercised before the King in the great Court of the Castle of Versailles.

Paris, April 6. The King has visited the Dutchess of Orleans, upon the death of her Mother the Elector ss Palatin, and his Majesty and the whole Court are gone into mourning. We have an account from Rochefort, that Nine Men of War are gone from thence for Brest, to join with Seven more that lie ready there; The Mareschal d'Estree, who is to command this Squadron, parted from hence the last week. They write from Spain, that at the instance of the Pope's Nuncio, orders have been sent to the Viceroy of Galicia, to put the Money that was some time ago seized at the Groyne, into the hands of the French Consul there; The Marquis d'Angeau, Governor of Touraine, is married to the Countess of Lewestein.
